Introduction to Tribulation

Who is it intended for?

Why does it exist?

When does it begin?

How long does it last?

What will it be like?

Introduction to Tribulation

Who is it intended for? Israel

Introduction to Tribulation

Who is it intended for? Israel

Why does it exist?

Why Tribulation for Israel?

Deuteronomy 29

- The Old Covenant was with future generations
- It was God's instrument to establish Israel as a nation according to the promises made to Abraham

Why Tribulation for Israel?

Leviticus 26

- A summary of the covenant terms
- To receive the blessings, Israel as a whole must keep the covenant perfectly
- Otherwise, they receive all the curses
- Many curses have already happened
- Some have yet to happen
- Tribulation is the culmination of the curses

Why Tribulation for Israel?

Leviticus 26

- A loophole permits the nation to receive the blessings
- They must confess their sin and their forefathers' sin
- A national confession of faith is required
- Then God will remember the Abrahamic Covenant and bless the nation on that basis

Why Tribulation for Israel?

Deuteronomy 30

- Moses acknowledges that these events will happen to Israel
- The final result will be Israel returned to the land secure and peaceful
- They will prosper in the kingdom
- The nation will be glorified
- The means is the national confession
